Upcoming meeting

Our next dinner meeting of 2018 is Monday, February 26, at the Centerville Senior Center beginning at 6:30 pm. Stephanie McCurdy, executive director of Sunrise, Inc. Therapeutic Riding Center will be our speaker.

Lions hold first meeting of 2018

Lion Bill Felker, Dale Delay and club president
Joe Elstro

When a speaker canceled at the last minute, members of the Centerville Lions Club produced their own program... by playing a game. Each member told three stories... two of which were to be true and the third false. Other members had to pick the false story. It was fun and members were able to get know each other better.

Leos Club adviser Holly Stiggleman reported the club has been busy. They participated in the Centerville Christmas parade and are involved in several projects including collecting eye glasses.

Treasurer Dennis Stephen said he has been studying annual dues and will have a report for the club soon. Members who pay on an annual basis should make sure they are up to date.

Club president Joe Elstro introduced prospective member Dale Delay, owner of a Centerville insurance agency.

Former member dies

Billy L. Dillon of Centerville died Wednesday, January 24 at Reid Health in Richmond. He was 93.

He was a former member of the Centerville Lions Club having served as president in 1961-62. He was a member of the Centerville Town Council for 16 years with 8 years as its president. He was a mechanic and had worked for the Wayne County Highway Department, Warfield Oil Company and Richmond Electric.

He is survived by a daughter, Linda Strom of Fairfield, Ohio, three grandsons and eight great grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday, January 27 at 2 pm at the Doan and Mills Funeral Home in Richmond. Burial followed in Crown Hill Cemetery in Centerville.
