Basketball coach speaks to Lions

Centerville Senior High School basketball coach Ryan Chiddester spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, February 14.

Chiddester covered the past season and looked ahead to the basketball tourney. He said he expected the team to do well. Chiddester has been head coach for twelve years.

Notes from the Lions

Attendance at recent meetings have been disappointing. Only 12 members turned out for the February 14 meeting. Several members spend the winter in Florida and the area has been hit with unusual winter weather this year. Lion Jim Howell suggested the club consider suspending meetings during January and February next year. No action was taken.

Vice president Tim Hill conducted the meeting in the absence of president Anne Elstro, who was ill.

The Club did approve a $100 expenditure to the After Prom Party at the high school this year. A request to help in financing the cost of a new drug dog for the Sheriff's Department was taken under advisement.
