Centerville Postmaster speaks to Lions

Postmaster Jane
Robinson

Centerville Postmaster Jane Hubbard Robinson spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, January 23. She has been with the USPS for 37 years as a carrier, clerk and now postmaster.

Robinson said the Post Office offers many services, even mailing on-line. She said they can ship fish, bees, birds and other animals. She added, "the postal carrier is a friend to all and is in neighborhoods each day to know their routes and their people."

Lion Jim Resh noted that the Centerville Lions Club was instrumental in starting daily carrier service in Centerville many years ago and applied to the government to have service begin.

Centerville Lions Secretary Wendy Kornman is a postal carrier in the New Castle area.
