Club celebrates Christmas with a program of song

Program chair Hobson with Brian Rodgers

Singer Brian Rodgers of Richmond entertained the Centerville Lions Club at its annual Christmas Banquet Monday evening December 10 at the Centerville High School Cafetorium. Rodgers, who has been singing since his school days at Connersville, presented a program mostly of old Christmas carols, some dating back to the 1400s. Very talented, Rodgers also did the Alvin and Chipmonks Christmas song.

Several new members were announced at the gathering: Pastor Robert Meckley of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ty Farmer, Todd Hobson and Toni Benedict. They will be formerly inducted into the club sometime this year.

Leo Club participates in state meeting

The Centerville High School Leo Club took part in the 2013 Mid Winter Conference in Plainfield Saturday, January 5. Leo Advisor Lion Pam Tidrow and Leo Club President Reile Tincer presented one of the morning seminars. Lion Tidrow said, "They discussed joint service activities and how they can help to build a relationship between the sponsoring Lions Club and its Leos." International President Wayne Madden of Indiana was guest speaker for the conference.
