Club welcomes transfer member

Centerville Lions Club president Bob Hobson conducted the meeting following dinner Monday evening, February 24. Hobson introduced Mike Spotts, who is transferring his membership from the Richmond Lions Club.

Reservations

Lion Phil Benedict stated that he would continue to take reservations for the club for meals, but that if you attend a meeting, you are automatically reserved for the next meeting, unless you notify him by Thursday. And if you fail to respond to his email requesting information on your attendance, then you will not be put down for a meal reservation.

Notes from February meeting

The Bicentennial committee asked to use some of our chairs for different events like concerts in the Park during the celebration this summer and the Club agreed.

A new headquarters for the Indiana State Lions Club association has been obtained in Indianapolis and a new plaza will be built in the front of it with bricks for each club to sponsor. The Centerville Club voted to provide one brick in the amount of $100 with Centerville Lions Club, Organized 1944 printed on the brick.

Treasurer Dennis Stephen reported on the Awards Banquet set for April 14th in the Elementary Cafeteria. The cost will be $10 each for the dinner. Members were requested to nominate citizens for the awards.

The Club voted to donate $100 to the Senior Center for their upcoming dinner to honor the employees of the Town.

Future meetings and events

March 24 – Nomination of officers

April 14 – Community Awards

April 28 – Regular meeting
