Community Service Awards presented

The Centerville Lions Club presented it's 30th annual Community Service Awards for the 28th time Monday evening, April 25. Awards were not given in 2010 and 2012.

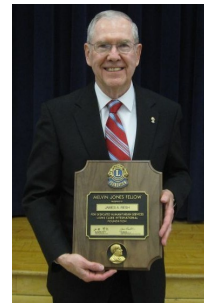

The Centerville Playground Committee was presented an Outstanding Citizen Award for 2016. Led by Michael Scott, the committee has raised over 54-thousand dollars to install new playground equipment in Maplewood Park. Scott said the final equipment has been installed and mulch is scheduled this week. Scott, a recent resident of Centerville, is Student Success Coach and Counselor at Indiana University East. Members of the committee include Julie Scott, Kara Bellew, Carla Ballanger, Katie Alyea, Jessica Maule, Amanda Jones, Denise Lanman, Andrew Dickerson, Bob Nuss and Danny Shaver.

The second Outstanding Citizen Award was presented to Kyle and Mynde Turner of Centerville. They renovated a stately old building at the corner of Morton and National Road into the American House antique shop. Both are graduates of Centerville High School.

The third award was the Melvin Jones Award... the highest honor presented by Lions Clubs International Foundation... to James A. Resh, who joined the Centerville Club in 1960. He served as secretary of the club for 37 years. He has served the club in many aspects and served as president in 1968-69. Jim graduated from Centerville Senior High School in 1958.

The final presentation of the evening was the Milestone Chevron Award for 55 years of being a Lion. It was presented to Lion Bob Blue, who served as treasurer of the club from 1961 to 1968 and again from 1970 to 2002.
