Lion Pam Tidrow elected new president

Centerville Lions Club officers for 2015-2016 were elected Monday evening, April 27 during a regular meeting at the Senior Center.

Pam Tidrow, who served as first vice president this year moves into the presidency. Tim McConaha, who served as president in 2007-2007, moves into the first vice presidency. Joe Elstro, a former president in 2012-2013, was elected to serve as second vice president.

Wendy Kornman and Courtney Amos were re-elected as secretary and assistant secretary. Dennis Stephen will remain as treasurer and Kevin Sparks will be his assistant.

Paul Elstro keeps his post as Tail Twister, assisted by Steve Sheckles. Sheckles will also remain as Lion Tamer while Phil Stevenson was elected to be assistant Lion Tamer.

Anne Elstro and Bob Hobson were named to two year terms on the board of directors, while Ty Farmer and Mike Spotts remain for one year. Jack Farmer, as outgoing president, is also a board member. And Mike Spotts will remain membership chair.

The officers will be installed in ceremonies on June 8.

Club votes to support new playground effort

The program for April 27 was canceled due to the illness of Centerville Police Department Sgt. Matt Alexander's K9 Kendra. Alexander said he would be happy to present the program at a future meeting.

The club voted to support the group seeking funds for new playground equipment at Maplewood Park in the amount of $250. And the club took under study the support of Adopt a Platoon organization... a group that supports soldiers in the field with letters and personal items. It's a program suggested by Lion Courtney Amos.
