A word from Lions Clubs International President

Joe Preston, Lions Clubs International President, says "Strengthen the Pride through service for causes so worthy and just." In the May edition of Lion Magazine he says that is his opening line of his theme song. He says the key word in the sentence is "service." He continues, "Service is the cornerstone of my program all other concerns such as membership, leadership and club operations ultimately support, enhance and further our service to others. As Lions, service is our identity, and service is our mission."

Preston concluded his message with something he composed on an airplane that sums up how he feels: "Our efforts are not over/our journey far from done/lift up your hearts rejoice/we've only just begun." Something to remember as we prepare for our 36th annual Fish Fry, which supports our service work throughout the year.
