Leo Club presents $200 to Lions Club

The Centerville High School Leo Club presented a $200 check to the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, May 13. Club advisor Holly Stiggleman said the money is to be used for the Lions Dictionary Project, in which dictionaries are presented to grade school students. The check was part the proceeds from the Leo Club's Mother-Son Dance held on April 5. Treasurer Dennis Stephen accepted the check on behalf of the club.

Lion Stiggleman also presided over the Lions meeting in the absence of president Ty Farmer and vice president Bob Hobson.

In his report on the upcoming Fish Fry on Saturday, June 8, treasurer Dennis Stephen said he hopes every Lion is committed to the one day event in order for it to be successful. The fish fry had been held on Friday and Saturday in the past. The club will meet on June 3 prior to the fish fry to iron out any last minute problems. Tickets for members to sell were passed out during the meeting.

Three members... Joe Elstro, Crystal Kaulen and Wendy Cook... were presented with Centennial Awards for sponsoring new members.
