Upcoming meeting

Our next dinner meeting will be November 9 at the Centerville Senior Center beginning at 6:30 pm. Our program will feature the Soil and Water Conservation Service.

Halloween Party

150 persons turned out for the annual Community Halloween Party Saturday evening, October 31 at the Centerville Elementary Gymnasium.

35 costumed children participated in the costume competition. Winners were judged and announced in four categories:

Under 3: 1. Harrison Pardo; 2. Eli White; 3. Jaylen Sprinkles.

4-6 years: 1. Ari Stevenson; 2. Eli Rayles; 3. Mia Lipscomb.

7-10 years: 1. Aubrey Russell; 2. Gibson Rayles; 3. Carissa Shadle.

11-14 years: 1. Lauren Menke; 2. Bailey Miller; 3. Dylan Burke.

Leo Club members who helped Centerville Lions during the party were Madilyn Coomes, Jessi Martin, Maddie Day and Braeden Day. --->>>

Attendees enjoyed the popular Cake Walk along with many Halloween games including the Basketball Toss, Ring Toss, Ghosly Golf, Candy Corn Bowling and Pumpkin Bean Bag Toss, . Refreshments were also served.

The Halloween Party is one of the many projects of the Centerville Lions Club. It was co-chaired by President Pam Tidrow and Assistant Secretary Courtney Amos.

Centerville Town Board president speaks to Lions

Centerville Town Board president Dan Wandersee addressed members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, October 26. Wandersee looked at future plans for attracting businesses to Centerville. He spoke of the annexation to I-70 and the impact that has had on the overall attractiveness to site selectors for larger companies, as well as the impact of new legislation on small towns.
