Upcoming meeting

Our next meeting will be Monday evening, November 14, at the Centerville Senior Center. Dinner begins at 6:30 pm. Our program will be presented by Peter Zaleski.

Lions learn about Richmond Civic Theatre

Jason Blunk, President of the Board for Richmond Civic Theater and Bonnie Miller, Office Manager for the theater, spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, Oct. 24th.

This is Civic Theater's 76th year of production. Christmas Story, the Musical, will be their December play. The first play was "Our Town" in 1941. The dinner meeting was held at the Senior Center.

Lions host annual Halloween Party

The Centerville Lions Club has hosted the Community Halloween Party for over 60 years. This year's event was held Monday evening, October 31st at the Centerville Elementary gymnasium. Around 100 children and adults attended.

Many came in costume and all received a gift. Prizes were awarded to winners. Games were played and all took part in the popular cake walk. Refreshments were also served.

Several Leo Club members from Centerville High School assisted Lions Anne and Joe Elstro, Jim Howell, Jim Resh, Paul Elstro, Tim McConaha, Dennis Stephen, Phil Stevenson and Ty Farmer.
