Lion Allan Spencer is remembered

Lion P. Allan Spencer died Wednesday morning, November 5, at his home in Centerville. He is survived by his wife Sonia and three sons. Services were Monday, November 10, at the Centerville United Methodist Church. Burial was in Crown Hill Cemetery. Arrangements were handled by the Doan and Mills Funeral Home.

A native of Portland, Indiana, he was born on the day of an earthquake on March 6, 1937. A quiet man, he once said he resided in his father's funeral home for the first 8 or 9 years of his life. He changed his college major from engineering to administration, but didn't know what he wanted to do. After graduating in 1959, he thought about taking jobs in Alaska and Central America, but ended up taking a teaching job with Centerville schools. It was there he met his would-be wife in an adult night school class he was teaching. Then on a trip to Indianapolis with Superintendent Don Kehoe, he was asked to be his assistant. The title was later changed to Assistant Superintendent... a position he held until he retired.

Lion Spencer joined the Centerville Lions Club on January 1, 1962... having been invited to join by Charlie Killen. He became president of the club when Wilfred Nuss died and served from 1965 to 1967.

PDG Tom Slattery speaks to Lions

Past District Governor Tom Slattery spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, November 10. He addressed several topics.

Slattery told of Lion eyeglass collection and how they process the used glasses. He said they are also distributed to other countries. He also spoke of Cancer Control, Leader Dogs for the Blind and the Vision project.

Slattery works for the state Lions Headquarters.
