Upcoming meeting

Our next meeting will be Monday evening, November 28, at the Centerville Senior Center. Dinner begins at 6:30 pm. Beth Treaster of Centerville-Center Township Public Library will be our speaker.

Lions learn about pharmacies, windmills and county council

The Centerville Lions Club learned about the county council, Phillips Pharmacy and windmills at its regular dinner meeting Monday evening, November 14th at the Senior Center. Peter Zaleski of Phillips Pharmacy told of the ever increasing demands of the pharmacy business and the regulations of drugs for everyone.

Zaleski is also President of the Wayne County Council and is serving his second term in office. He told of the operations of the council and how they work with the county commissioners. Windmills in Wayne County was also discussed followed by a question and answer period

Lions review Halloween Party

Club vice president Joe Elstro conducted the November 14 business meeting. Fourteen members and guests were present.

A review of the recent Lions Club community Halloween Party was discussed and the attendance was lower this year, with many other activities happening the same evening.

The Club will present dictionaries to third grade students in the Centerville schools this Thursday.

The Lions Club annual Christmas party will be held on Monday, Dec. 12th at the high school cafetorium.
