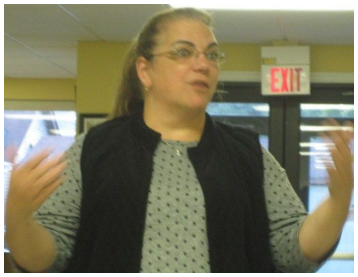
Natco Community Empowerment Center explained to Lions



Lions Club members learned what the Natco Community Empowerment Center is and what it does. Community Outreach Coordinator Dana Sinclair said their mission is to 'strenthen community through economic empowerment one step at a time'. The program is aimed at individuals who have found themselves in poverty. Sinclair said the Center covers budgeting, financial counseling, debt consolidation, foreclosure modification, time management, job seeking assistance, resume preparation, dress for success and their newest program called Circles in partnership with United Way.

More information is available on their web site: www.natcocu.org/NCEC. The Center is located at 6127 E. Main Street in Richmond.

Richmond Club observes 90th Anniversary

The Richmond Lions Club observed its 90th Anniversary with a dinner and program Saturday evening, October 4 at Lingle Hall at Reid Hospital and Health Care Center. The Club was organized June 7, 1924 and chartered on October 5.

Past International Director Doug Lozier of Carmel gave the keynote address.

Centerville Lion Jim Resh represented the Centerville Club in giving greetings and congratulations to the club. The Richmond Club sponsered the Centerville Club when it was organized 70 years ago.

Keeping up-to-date with Lions

Lion Allan Spencer and his wife Sonja have moved to 308 Deerfield Way in Centerville.

Lion Michael Poynter is at Arbor Trace.

Lions have approved $150 for the Dollars for Scholars Golf Outing later this month at Highland Lake Golf Course.
