A place for the abused

Cathy Bulach, victim advocate from the Genesis, spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, October 14.

She talked about the work of the organization. She described how they provide a place for abused women and men at their shelter.

They are also collecting supplies for their shelter.

Members updated on Halloween Party

The Halloween party was discussed Monday evening, October 14. Chairperson Lion Pam Tidrow asked everyone to bring baked goods for the cake walk.

She said will provide the music box this year and the Leos will help. The party will have a carnival-like atmosphere this year.

She announced that the Leos now have 11 members.

Lion Pam and Lion President Bob Hobson lead the discussion.

Club notes

The club voted to donate $100 to Genesis of the YWCA, which was our program which was our program October 14.

Lion Bob Blue is checking out the sign out sheets at the storage facility and will have a listing of items still outstanding.
