Lions year underway with annual Steak Fry

The Annual Steak Fry opened the new Centerville Lions Club year Monday evening, September 10. Held at the Log Cabin behind the Mansion House on East Main Street, about 21 members and guests attended. The meal was prepared by Marie Elstro, wife of Lion Paul Elstro.

Leo Club Advisor Pam Tidrow reported there are eight members in the club this year at the Centerville High School. She said several projects are being planned, including a book drive for the school, participation in the clubs Halloween Party next month, a bowling evening, a drive to assist the Help Shelter in Richmond, the Senior Dance and a blood drive.

Lion Pam also brought Mason, her new baby son, with her to the meeting.
