Restored Railroad Caboose Coming to Centerville

A recently restored railroad caboose may be coming to a park in Centerville. Two members of the Wayne County Railroaders Club spoke to the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, March 25. Greg White and Kenneth Bertsch told of the history of the caboose. They said members of the club have spent thousands of dollars restoring it. It previously was located at the Highland school in Richmond. Originally, it was brought from Naperville, Illinois. Centerville Town Council was asked to consider placing the caboose for display at Maplewood Park.

Lions Look Forward to April Events

Instead of having a nomination of officers for next year, president Ty Farmer said a nominations committee is being formed and an election of officers will be held in April.

Leos Club adviser Lion Holly Stiggleman reported on the upcoming Mother/Son event on April 5 at the Centerville Elementary School. She said there will be prizes, contests, face painting and pizza. Students up to the 6th grade are being invited.

The annual awards banquet will be held Monday, April 22, in the Centerville Elementary gymnasium. Outstanding service awards will be presented to Centerville area residents.

Lions 25-F District Governor Ron Bigham of Indianapolis will speak at the April 8 meeting during an official visit.
