Community Service Awards

The Centerville Lions Club presented its annual 25th Community Service Awards to two community citizens and one Centerville Lion.

Among community services attributed to Howard "Pete" Bailey and Doug Christian were their dedication to the care of Crown Hill Cemetery in Centerville... most importantly updating and computerizing cemetery records.

Lion McConaha was cited for his service to the club with his many activities during the year.

Program on Visually Impaired

Heather Quigley-Allen of Bosma Enterprises in Indianapolis will be our featured speaker April 25. She is Senior Director of Marketing and Resource Development. She is also president of the Bosma Visionary Opportunities Foundation.

The organization mission statement is, "Bosma Enterprises is dedicated to empowering people who are blind or visually impaired by creating opportunities that lead to the achievement of each individual's employment, economic, social, and self-determination goals."

Last year, Bosma's production facility generated more than $25 million in revenue using a work force in which more than 90% of the production employees were blind or visually impaired.
