Lions Day At The Union Nations

Centerville Lions were represented at Lions Day at the United Nations on April 10. Lion Jim Resh participated in a Zoom meeting of Lions Clubs International celebrating 75 years of partnership with the United Nations. Lion Resh told members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, April 12, the event commemorated our long-standing relationship as a consultative NGO (Non-Governmental Organizations) to the UN dating back to 1945 when Lion leaders were asked to help develop the NGO charter for the UN. He joined Lions, Leos, UN diplomats, dignitaries and other guests in the global conversation about this year's theme, "Connected Through Service."

Lions Clubs International is the largest service organization in the world, with more than 1.4 million members in 48,000 clubs serving 200 countries and geographic areas worldwide.
