Lions Club Cancels Events Until February 22

President Stiggleman

Members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, November 23, voted to cancel the Christmas Banquet scheduled on December 14th due to Covid-19 restrictions. They also voted to cancel the January meeting.

The club will tentatively meet at the end of February for a business meeting only. President Holly Stiggleman said, "At that time, we will need to discuss the Community Awards banquet and fish fry." If you have questions please contact President Stiggleman at 765-993-1135. We will hopefully be able to resume on February 22.

Lion Holly thanked members who brought in canned food. The food is being donated to the First United Methodist food bank.

CHS Athletic Director Speaks to Lions

Centerville Lions Club met on Monday, November 23rd at the Centerville Senior Center. Shane Osting, the new athletic director of Centerville High School, was the guest speaker. Osting talked about the challenges of holding athletic events during a pandemic.

Osting also discussed the strong athletic programs at Centerville, including the successful seasons of the fall sports teams. He introduced the new website for Centerville athletics, which can be found at <https://centervillebulldogsathletics.com>.
