Dictionaries were distributed to third grade students at Centerville Elementary School on Wednesday, December 14.

Lions Paul Elstro and Bob Hobson helped Lion Dennis Stephen pass the dictionaries to the students.

Third grade teacher Patti Sharp said the students were so excited with their "gift of words." She added, "They didn't want to put them down. We are working on word choice to use in their writing and this will serve as an excellent resource."

Besides words, the books include other information including short histories of all U.S. presidents.
