Centerville Lions Celebrate 70 Years of Service

Lion Jim Resh, VDG Jeff Locke and club president Bob Hobson

Members and guests of the Centerville Lions Club met Monday evening, December 9th in the Centerville High School Cafetorium for a Christmas Banquet and to celebrate 75 years of service to the community.

Club president Bob Hobson welcomed the group and introduced members of the Williamsburg Lions Club along with members from the Richmond Lions Club present to help with the recognition.

2nd Vice District Governor Jeff Locke spoke on behalf of District Governor Don Mullen and he also presented the following awards: A 75 year symbol to the President to attach to the club's banner and a 25 year Chevron award to Bob Hobson and Steve Orsborn. Tim McConaha received a 15 year Chevron award.

Longtime member Jim Resh acknowledged the charter officers of the club, which was sponsored by the Richmond Lions Club August 28, 1944. The club had 46 charter members and one was Marvin Howell, father of present member Jim Howell. Jim Resh joined the club in 1960.

Lions Holly Stiggleman and Wendy Cook hosted the punch table social before the meeting. Lion Dennis Stephen was co-chairperson.

Dinner music and Christmas carols were provided by the Jim McKinney musical group.
