Community Awards Banquet Postponed

The Community Awards Banquet sponsored by the Centerville Lions Club has been postponed due to the current coronavirus situation. It had been scheduled for April 13 at the Centerville High School Cafetorium. But since the schools are closed until then, it's uncertain when the banquet and where it will now be held.

Lions Learn About Local Addiction Problems

Pastor of the Centerville United Methodist Church spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, March 9th. Ted Chalk is also pastor of First United Methodist Church in Richmond.

He spoke of the addiction problems in our county and explained the many organizations who are helping to support people who want to recover. Ted came to Centerville in 2013.
