A Cold, Snowy Halloween Party

A cold evening with snow flurries and winds couldn't turn away the Goblins from the Centerville Lions Club Community Halloween Party Thursday evening, October 31.

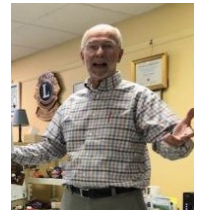

Members of the Centerville High School Leo Club assisted Lions and their families conduct the annual event held at the Centerville Elementary School gymnasium.

Approximately 200 attended and enjoyed game booths, refreshments and a cake walk. Costume judging took place and all received a cash prize along with special gifts to the winners. Costume winners were: Group # 1 - 1st place Caden Musselman, 2nd place, Adeline Beatty, 3rd place, Logan Green. Group 2 : - 1st place, Justin Schnitzius, 2nd place, Cheyanne Corder, 3rd place Connor Elstro. Group 3: 1st place, Gab Kirksey, 2nd place, Anna Nevels, 3rd place, Kendra Hutton. Group 4: - 1st place, Olivia Hensley, 2nd place, Tina Sheets, 3rd place, Victoria Beatty.

Lion Holly Stiggleman was chairperson.

Lions Learn About Food Ministry

The Monthly Food Ministry at the Centerville United Methodist Church was explained to members of the Centerville Lions Club at its regular dinner meeting Monday evening at the Centerville Senior Center. Kevin Smith, a member of the church, was guest speaker.

Smith explained the Food Ministry mission and how they serve an average 70 families a month and 14 veterans. The foods include fresh fruit and vegetables along with bread and bread products, potatoes, and some non food items. A group of church members man the tables and help families gather their items. Smith's wife Elizabeth also helps with the project.
