Centerville Lions entertain at Halloween Party

The annual Community Children's Halloween Party was held Saturday October 30th in the Centerville Elementary gym with 150 persons attending. Over 12 members of the Lions Club helped with the party and served refreshments.

Lion Pam Tidrow served as chairman. Each child dressed in costume received a cash prize and winners in the judging contest received ribbons. Children enjoyed many games and the annual cake walk.

Jerome Swim talks about Adopt-A-Highway

Jerome Swim, Operations Manager for the Cambridge City Subdistrict of the Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT), spoke about Adopt-A-Highway before the Centerville Lions Club on Monday evening, October 25.

He then answered questions about the new subdistrict garage at Cambridge City. He told about their operations and how they handle the highways in this area. President Anne Elstro introduced him.

Notes from the Club

Lion Treasurer Kevin Sparks said State and International dues have been paid.

Lion President Anne Elstro talked to Centerville High School Principal Tammy Chavis about the status of the Leo Club. It was decided that the Club would be inactive for the remainder of the school year.

She read a thank you from Coach Ryan Chiddister for supporting of the High School Boys Basketball Camp.

The Christmas in Centerville night was discussed and the Lions will sell tickets for the carriage rides this year. Lions may have a float in the parade also.
