Halloween Party delayed by weather

Delayed by one day due to inclement weather, around 125 persons attended the annual Centerville Lions Club Community Halloween Party Friday evening, November first. Held at the Centerville Elementary gymnasium, children of all ages were judged in costume by members of the Leo Club at Centerville Senior High School.

Each child entered into the contest received a silver dollar.

The popular Cake Walk was conducted by chairperson Pam Tidrow. Refreshments were provided by the Lions Club. Participants were entertained with games scattered throughout the gym.

Over twelve members of the Lions Club helped with the party as well as several Leo members.

Bicentennial celebrations coming

Plans for the Centerville Bicentennial were presented to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, October 28. Bicentennial chairpersons Bev and Dave Nixon said many events are being planned for the event next year.

Centerville will be 200 years old and many special dates will be set aside for the celebration. The first date will be January first. It will be a flag raising at the Library and a reception for everyone at the Centerville Christian Church Fellowship Center.

The Bicentennial Committee is looking for volunteers to help with the various events.

Equipment inventory being made

Former club secretary Bob Blue reported on the inventory of equipment in the Mansion House garage. He said letters will be sent to all who have equipment signed out to determine how many items are on hand.

Treasurer Dennis Stephen handed out dues to members.
