Upcoming Meeting

Club Hears About Christmas in Centerville

Shari Markley of Christmas in Centerville told Lions Club members Monday evening, November 9, of plans for the event during the coronavirus pandemic. Markley said after months of talking about it, the Main Street committee decided to proceed with Christmas in Centerville. However, they wanted to make sure that they could do it safely.

This year, there will be more activities online. There will be a pet photo contest, a gingerbread house building contest, and an online storytime with Mrs. Claus. Markley said Main Street is encouraging businesses and residents to decorate. There will be a business and residential lighting contest.

The Main Street committee really wants to encourage residents to shop local this holiday season and support our local businesses including Warm Glow Candle Company, 5 Arch Brewing Company, Americana Pizza, Village Forager, Cinnamon Spice Bakery, Gillman's Home Center, Miss Bessie Buhl's Eclectic Garden, Spirit Wear, Inc., and Wheeler's Antiques. Finalized plans for Christmas in Centerville will eventually be posted on mainstreetcenterville.org.

From President Stiggleman

We would like for members to bring a few canned goods to our next meeting November 23. We will then donate the items to the Centerville United Methodist Church Food Pantry.
