Kyle Turner Outlines Hopes For Main Street Centerville

Kyle Turner, who heads up Main Street Centerville, spoke before members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, September 28. He outlined some of the hopes and plans for the organization.

He said the Centerville Christian Church among other groups has helped clean Maplewood Park, install new signs and paint trash cans over town.

Turner said they are working for a successful Christmas in Centerville this year.

And they are developing a program for visitors.

He also touched on some of the other happenings that are occurring in Centerville.

Halloween And Christmas Projects Updated By President

Since our September 28th meeting club president Holly Stiggleman has updated members on plans for Halloween and Christmas:

"I am planning on booking the Centerville Christian Life Center for our Christmas party on Monday, December 14th. There is a cost of $50.00 to cover a cleaning fee. We will not be having outside entertainment this year. Having our party at the Life Center will allow us to bring a guest and still practice social distancing.

"We have been approved to use the Centerville Elementary parking lot for our Halloween drive by. We will ask community members/kids to stay in their cars. Lions Club members are asked to wear masks and gloves. If anyone would like to donate candy, prizes, etc. for the treat bags please let me know."

Upcoming Events

October 26 – Dan Wandersee, Centerville Town Council President; October 31 – Halloween Drive-by November 9 – Shari Markley, Christmas in Centerville; November 23 – Dinner meeting
December 14 – Christmas Banquet
