IU East Assistant Athletic Director Speaks to Lions

Indiana University East Assistant Athletic Director Kyle Wright spoke to members of the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, September 23. Wright, who is also Director of Sports Information, told of the seven sports in the NAIA program at IU East. He said there are 200 athletes participating in the program with a 75% graduating rate.

Wright also stressed the community service performed by students called Champions of Character. He said each athlete takes on two community service projects each year.

Athletes are currently competing in women's volleyball and women's and men's soccer. Men's and women's basketball begins in November.

Leos In Homecoming Parade

Five members of the Leo Club at Centerville High School participated in the CHS Homecoming parade September 26. They also helped Lions Ty Farmer and Joe Elstro's son Conner put the float together. Lions Anne and Joe Elstro along with son Conner rode with the Leos on the float pulled with a tractor operated by Lion Ty. The infamous "Lion Leo" also perched himself on the float.

The Leo Club is sponsored by the Centerville Lions Club and is advised by Lion Holly Stiggleman, who is Librarian at the school. The club participates in several community projects and assists the Lions at the Fish Fry and other events.
