

Along the Lions Trail

Centerville, Indiana Lions Club Bulletin

September 21, 2017

Vol. 74, No. 2

On the web at <http://centervillelionsclub.tripod.com>

Look for us on Facebook

Upcoming meeting

Our first regular meeting of the new Lions year will be Monday, September 25, 6:30 pm at the Senior Center in Centerville. Initiation of new members will follow dinner.

Steak fry ushers in new Lions year

Sixteen persons attended the Centerville Lions Club Steak Fry Monday evening, September 11 held in the Log Cabin at the Mansion House in Centerville. The event ushered in the new Lions year, that runs from July 1st through June of 2018.

Four new members attended the steak fry: Scott Bevington, Mike McCoy, Crystal Kaulen and Cameron Felker. Two former member, Bob Blue and Chuck Magner, also attended.

During a short meeting following dinner, the club voted to send 150 dollars to the Centerville Dollars for Scholars program.

Several members stayed to play cards inside the Mansion House.

New members to be initiated into Lions

There's a possibility that five new members will be initiated into the Centerville Lions Club Monday evening, September 25. They are (left to right) Mike McCoy, Cameron Felker, Crystal Caulen Scott Bevington and Jeff Jenkins (not pictured).

Past District Governor Carl Sharp will induct the new members. He will also outline the meaning of Lionism to the new members and those attending. The evening begins with dinner at 6:30 pm at the Centerville Senior Center in Centerville.

Future meetings and events

October 9 – Dinner and program

Secretary Wendy Kornman

President Joe Elstro

Bulletin editor Bill Felker