Lions Newest Couple Enjoy Annual Picnic

No one knew there was a new couple in their midst during the beginning of the Centerville Lions Club Family picnic Monday evening, July 15. But, sometime during the festivities, Jeff Jenkins and Crystal Kaulen revealed they were married earlier this summer. Both members of the club for the past several years, the two bankers told members they were married July first at Cocoa Beach, Florida.

The picnic was held again at Maplewood Park which has played host to the event for the past several years. This is the first year it has been held in July. The picnic will be held next year on July 13.

Newly installed president Bob Hobson held an informal planning meeting for programs this coming year. The August planning meeting was canceled.

Hobson revised the Standing Committees adding Dennis Stephen to the Fish Fry committee and Holly Stiggleman to the Christmas Banquet and Scholarship committees.

Lions Earn Money For The Club

Members of the Centerville Lions Club sold tickets at the two entrances to the Autumn Oaks Dog Show at the Wayne County Fairgrounds August 30 and 31. It was a chance to earn money for the Lions club.

Lions who helped were Bob Hobson, Dennis Stephen and his wife Kathy, Jim Howell, Tim McConaha, Paul Elstro and his wife Marie, Joe and Anne Elstro and their son Conner, Steve Orsborn, Scott Bevington, Ty Farmer, Jim Resh and Richard Lehman of the Richmond Lions Club. Many thanks to these individuals for making this possible.
