Lions Roar Into The New Year With DG Attending Steak Fry

25F District Governor Don Mullen of Indianapolis got the Centerville Lions Club off to a rousing start at the first meeting of the year Monday evening, September 9, telling them they must help stem the tide of membership losses across the state and nation. Mullen said we need to get more people and younger ones to help perpetuate the club's legacy. "What drives Lions is you," he said. He said older Lions must understand the younger generation to get them to take part. And he added, "to embrace the differences to grow our organization."

Also attending the annual steak fry was Lion Jeffrey Locke of Richmond, a member of the Williamsburg Lions Club and 2nd Vice District Governor.

Centerville Native Returns From California

Attending the Centerville Lions Club Steak Fry for the first time was Lion Marguarite Marianne Grimme of Richmond. She has requested a transfer from the Higgins Diggins Lions Club in Grass Valley, California where she had resided. She said she has been a member of the Lions Club for around ten years.

A native of Wayne County, she has resided in the western part of the United States for some fifty years. A banker, Lion Jim Resh remembers working with her years ago at the Centerville branch of the Second National Bank. He even had a picture of her to show her.

Richmond Lions Celebrate 95th Anniversary

The Richmond Lions Club observed its 95th anniversary Friday evening, September 13 at Willie and Red's Smorgasbord in Hagerstown. Richmond club historian Ron Smith outlined the history of the club from the time it was formed on October 5, 1924 to the present time. The club was sponsored by the Connersville Lions Club. And the Richmond club sponsored the Centerville Club 20 years later, in 1944.

The Centerville Lions Club was represented at the celebration by Lions Bill Felker and Jim Resh. During the celebration, 25F District Governor Ron Mullen presented Richmond Lion Mark Morris with the prestigious Melvin Jones Award.. The club's motto for the year is "95 and still have drive."
